

and

's

2023

FAMILY TRAINING SERIES

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, TRAUMA AND BIBLIOTHERAPY THROUGH A PLAY THERAPY LENS

Domestic violence and family trauma can change the course of life for children. Children and family therapists are often called upon to help family's heal and find their way through a very difficult time. Come and learn about the impacts of DV on children and the history and benefits of bibliotherapy to help children understand that they are not alone and what they can do to beautiful feel safe again..

OBJECTIVES

Participants will learn:

- Family trauma effects on children's development
- How traumatized children present in therapy.
- The history and effectiveness of bibliotherapy
- Benefits and contraindications of using bibliotherapy with children from families with violence.
- How do kids present in therapy after they have had trauma
- Use of 3 different books and interventions that can be used to help children heal from family trauma

AGENDA

- 6:00 Welcoming Remarks. Introductions. Overview of presentation.
- 6:30 Impact of domestic violence and trauma on children
- 7:30 Bibliotherapy as an intervention
- 8:15 Books and example interventions
- 8:45Q & A

Cancellation/Refunds granted one week prior to event.
APT Approved Provider 12-329

TAUGHT BY:
LORI HOUSTON,
LCSW, RPT-S,
LINSDEY RHETT,
LMFT, RPT

DATE/TIME:
3/2/23
6:00PM-9:00PM

3 CONTINUING EDUCATION*
HOURS
3 RPT HOURS

LOCATION:
THE NAVE
3502 SPENARD
OR ON ZOOM

REGISTRATION:
AKAPT.ORG
UNDER TRAINING & EVENTS

QUESTIONS?
EMAIL
MAIL@AKAPT.ORG

*CEs pending state approval